Minutes

President Crow welcomed comments from community members. One community member talked about the high property tax burden. Several visitors spoke about teacher contract negotiations.

Visitors

Dr. Murray gave kudos to Mr. Mike Goliber, Mrs. Becky Olah, Mrs. Patty McKane, and Ms. Deborah Roda for their work setting up the auditorium to accommodate a board meeting. She also gave kudos to Cadet Commander Kyle Lux for being offered two college scholarships.

Kudos

Dr. Murray gave a Power Point presentation about revenues supporting the 2010-2011 budget. She explained the Real Property Tax Laws involving fund balances. She pointed out the difference between the unreserved, unappropriated fund balance and the unreserved appropriated fund balance. Dr. Murray reminded the board that the unreserved appropriated fund balance must, by law, be used to reduce the tax levy. She said it may not be used for operating costs.

Budget Update

Dr. Murray introduced high school principal, Mr. Jack Latini, who gave a Power Point presentation about the building's midterm exams administered last month. He explained how the midterms help to outline the areas in need of additional instructional support to better prepare the students for the June exams. Mr. Latini added that student scores have shown improvement. He thanked the high school faculty for scoring and analyzing the exams to produce the necessary data.
