

Minisink Valley High School 2008 Hall of Fame Inductees

Gary Lynch

graduated from MVHS in 1968. He is the Executive Vice President and Chief Legal Office of Morgan Stanley and, also, a member of the firm's management committee. Prior to joining Morgan Stanley in 2005, Mr. Lynch was Executive Vice Chairman of Credit Suisse First Boston and a member of Credit Suisse Group's Executive Board. Mr. Lynch joined Credit Suisse First Boston as Global General Counsel in October 2001.

Mr. Lynch graduated from Syracuse University in 1972, Phi Beta Kappa. He received his J.D. from Duke University School of Law in 1975.

Carlos Gonzalez

graduated from MVHS in 2001 and was enrolled in the MVHS JROTC for four year. Upon graduation, he attended Valley Forge Military College for one year completing the Reserve Officers' Training Corps at Fort Knox. While Carlos was based with the 101st Airborne in Fort Campbell, KY, Carlos gave the ultimate sacrifice to his country and was killed in action on 3/16/2006 in Tikrit, Iraq. Upon his death, Carlos received several honors including, but not limited to the Purple Heart, the Good Conduct Medal, the Gold Order of Mercury from the US Army Signal Corp, the Bronze Star, and the New York State Liberty Award.

